A VALUABLE PLANTATION, in very good order, pleaſantly ſituated in Whitpain township, about 16 miles from the city of Philadelphia, containing about 355 acres, adjoining lands of John Roberts, George Karſtner, and others; there are about 40 acres of good watered meadow, with a fine ſtream of water running through it, and a ſufficient quantity of woodland; a large ſtone houſe, two ſtories high, and kitchen adjoining, with a pump of excellent water in it; a good ſpring-houſe near the dwelling, and a dairy-houſe over it; a ſmoke-houſe, ſtill-houſe, and a building formerly occupied as a ſchool-houſe, a chair-houſe and granary, a large ſtone barn, with plenty of good ſtabling, a cow-houſe extending from one end of the barn, containing 22 ſtalls, with a calf and ſheep-houſe, and a large hay-mow over the whole; a ſtone wall extending from the other end of the barn, with ſheds erected for carts, plows, &c. two good apple orchards of excellent fruit, two very good gardens, one of which has a ſtout ſtone wall round it, covered with cedar; on part of ſaid land is a ſtone tenement, with a ſmith's ſhop, a ſmall orchard, and piece of meadow, now in the tenure of Edward Morgan, and letts at 14l. per annum. The whole might ſuit for a gentleman's country ſeat, or might be divided ſo as to make two good farms. For terms of ſale, enquire of ABRAHAM DAWES, on the premiſes, of JONATHAN PAUL, Miller, at Cheſtnut-hill, or of ROBERT TUCKNISS, Hatter, in Market-ſtreet, Philadelphia. Theſe.

To be SOLD, by private SALE,

THE Mills, and Plantation, in Upper-Providence, Cheſter county, belonging to the ſubſcriber; the plantation contains 66 acres, four fields of about ſeven acres in each field, with 12 acres of as good meadow as moſt in the province, ſupplied by a large ſtream of water over the meadow, and water in each field, a dwelling-houſe, with 2 rooms on the floor, 2 fire-places below, a large frame barn, ſtables, cow-houſe, a boarded ſhed, ſufficient to hold ten cows, waggon-houſe, hay-houſe, and ſtable under it, a large garden, well paled in, a good ſtone ſpring-houſe, a young orchard, the remainder of the plantation is good woodland and choice timber; the mill-houſe is built of ſtone, 56 by 40 feet, three ſtories high, with two pair of ſtones, the merchant ſtones are Cologne's, and are allowed to be as good as any in the province, both pair are double geared, three boulting cheſts, all in good order; the water-works are almoſt new, and on a never-failing ſtream in the drieſt ſeaſon, and in a good part for wheat or country work, and well ſituated with good roads, for carrying on a large trade, being within 15 miles of Philadelphia, and 7½ miles from Cheſter, where they may be ſupplied with wheat at any time. The payments ſhall be made very eaſy, and a good title, and the purchaſer may have poſſeſſion immediately. Sept. 3, 1773. CHARLES LINN.

Burlington, Seventh Month (July) 12, 1773.

At public VENDUE will be ſold, for a term of years, on Seventh Day, the 18th day of the Ninth Month (September) next, at two o' clock in the afternoon, at the Lower Market Stalls, in the City of Burlington,

TWO acres and a quarter of MEADOW, belonging to Emanuel Eyres, and the like quantity, belonging to Jehu Eyres, ſituate on the north ſide of the creek which ſurrounds the Iſland of Burlington, between Samuel Eyres and James Pemberton's meadows. The length of the term will be what the purchaſer may think ſufficient to reimburſe him the ſum he advances, for diſcharging two aſſeſſments made on the ſaid meadows (by agreement and direction of the Lower Sluice Company, purſuant to a law of the province, for that and other purpoſes) with the intereſt which ſhall then be due on the ſaid aſſeſſments, and the charges of this procedure. The ſales will be attended, and a good title given, by WILLIAM SMITH, and † SAMUEL ALLINSON.

To be SOLD, by the SUBSCRIBER,

at the London Coffee-houſe, on Wedneſday, the 22d of this inſtant (September) at ſix o'clock in the evening,

TWO certain two ſtory brick meſſuages or tenements, and lots of ground to them reſpectively belonging; each of them are 15 by 16 feet, ſituate on the weſt ſide of Second-ſtreet continued, in the Northern Liberties of the city of Philadelphia; the northernmoſt of the ſaid lots containing in breadth on ſaid ſtreet 15 feet, and in length 82 feet; and the ſouthernmoſt of ſaid lots containing in breadth on ſaid ſtreet 15 feet, and in depth 80 feet 9 inches. Alſo a corner vacant lot of ground, joining the above-mentioned ſouthernmoſt lot, containing in breadth or front on Second-ſtreet aforeſaid, 40 feet, and in length on Poplar Lane, 92 feet, and on the north-ſide, 83 feet; and on the weſt end it contains 20 feet 9 inches. The ſaid tenements are compleatly finiſhed and in good repair, and the whole of the ſaid lots under good fence. The two laſt mentioned lots have the privilege of a three feet alley at the weſt end, left out for the accommodation of each of them; alſo the privilege and uſe of the pump and well of water for the ſaid three lots erected before the middle of the above premiſes. The two firſt mentioned lots are each of them ſubject to the yearly groundrent of 45s. current money of Pennſylvania, and the laſt mentioned lot is ſubject to the yearly rent of 6l. like money. Any perſon inclinable to purchaſe the whole, or part of them by private ſale, before the time of ſale, may apply to the ſubſcriber; if not, there will be due attendance given at the time and place aforeſaid, by PETER WILTBERGER.

N. B. Any perſon inclinable to purchaſe them may apply as above. ¶ 756.

TWO DOLLARS Reward.

WAS STOLEN, out of the houſe of the ſubſcriber, on the 12th of Auguſt laſt, at night, a SILVER WATCH, Charles Reynolds, maker, number 4071, London; am not certain whether the letters in the caſe are CH or GH. Whoever will bring ſaid Watch to the owner, or ſecure it, ſo as he may have it again, ſhall receive the above reward, paid by DAVID REES, living in Eaſton, Cheſter county.

N. B. All Silverſmiths are deſired to take notice of this advertiſement, the Watch being likely to fall into their hands, as it is ſomewhat out of repair. ¶

LONDON, June 24.

THIS day being Midſummer-day, there was a very numerous and reſpectable appearance of the Livery of London, in Common-hall aſſembled, for the annual purpoſe of electing Sheriffs for the city of London, and county of Middleſex, for the enſuing year.

The Lord Mayor, attended by the Sheriffs, Aldermen Stephenſon, Wilkes, Bull, Sawbridge, Halifax, and Plomer, together with the city officers, aſcended the Huſtings about one o'clock, when the Hall being opened by the Common Cryer, Mr. Recorder came forward, and in a truly conſtitutional ſpeech, informed the Livery of the great importance of this their annual election, "that it was, in a great meaſure, from a proper choice of Sheriffs, their anceſtors were enabled to ſecure to them their rights and privileges; he therefore ſaid, he had no doubt but that they would be actuated by the ſame conſtitutional principles on the preſent occaſion."

After the Recorder had retired, M. B. Allen, Eſq; reminded the Livery, that laſt year he was forbid by the then Recorder, to introduce any other matter on this day but that relative to the election; he therefore called upon the preſent Recorder for his opinion on that matter.

The Recorder immediately got up, and delivered it as his opinion, that the Livery had it in their choice to debate on any matter, relative to their rights, they thought proper.

Having obtained this ſanction, the Captain then propoſed that inſtructions (which he read) ſhould be given the four Members of Parliament for the city of London, to ſupport, next ſeſſion of Parliament, the motion of Alderman Sawbridge in favour of annual elections.

This motion being duly put and ſeconded, was carried, After which the Deputy Town Clerk (in the abſence of Sir James Hodges) acquainted the Livery of the Lord Mayor, &c. preſenting their laſt petition to the King, agreeable to their order, and at the ſame time read to them his Majeſty's anſwer; when the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, &c. retired.

The Common Serjeant then put up the ſeveral Aldermen who have not paſſed the office of Sheriff, with thoſe who have been drank to, together with Stephen Sayre, Eſq. as candidates for the Shrievalty for the enſuing year; when the majority of hands were determined by the Sheriffs to be in favour of William Plomer, Alderman and Bricklayer, and Stephen Sayre, Eſq; Frame-work knitter.

The Offices of Chamberlain, Bridge-Maſters, Ale Conners, Auditors, &c were then ſeverally put up; when the ſeveral gentlemen at preſent in the occupation of ſuch offices, were re-choſen, except two for the Auditorſhip (this being the ſecond year, and conſequently two removable by charter) when Mr. Nicholſon and Mr. Piper were declared elected in their ſtead.

The buſineſs of the day being thus concluded on, Mr. Sayre, one of the new elected Sheriffs, came forward, and addreſſed the Livery in the following ſpeech.

"GENTLEMEN of the LIVERY.

IT is impoſſible for me to expreſs the feelings of gratitude which predominate in my breaſt upon the preſent occaſion. The honour you have done me calls for a return, which a life entirely devoted to your ſervices only can make. I deem myſelf more highly favoured, becauſe I am well convinced, that nothing under Heaven could have induced you to elect me into the office of Sheriff, but an opinion of my independance, and ſincere attachment to the public cauſe. I am independant; I will continue ſo. Upon public grounds only I preſumed to ſolicit your favour: Upon public grounds only I will ſtudy to deſerve it. It ſhall be the labour of my life to convince you, that in veſting me with an important truſt, you have not made an improper choice. I will ſtrain every nerve in combating our common foe; I will labour aſſiduouſly to ſtop the progreſs of Deſpotiſm; at leaſt I will, by a vigorous exertion of thoſe powers with which you have entruſted me, prevent its making any inroads into this great, this opulent, this free and independant City."

Extract of a Letter from Peterſburgh, June 16.

"Her Imperial Majeſty has juſt diſpatched orders to the Ruſſian Commandant General at Aſtracan, in the kingdom of that name, and to the Governor of Circaſſian Tartary, at the city of Terki, to raiſe immediately a body of 10,000 men; they are to be diſciplined for ſome time where they are raiſed, and are then to march for Peterſburgh, where they are to be embodied, and from thence are to march as a reinforcement to Marſhal Romanzow's army. The Aſtracan and Circaſſian Tartars are eſteemed very good ſoldiers."

Letters from Spain and Sicily give an account, that they have the greateſt proſpect of a plentiful harveſt in both thoſe countries.

June 26. The vacant blue ribbons, we hear, are intended for the Dukes of Richmond and Devonſhire, if thoſe Noblemen will condeſcend to aſk for them; it being always cuſtomary, it ſeems, for thoſe, who wiſh to be inveſted with that honour, to aſk for it of the Sovereign, before they can be inſtalled.

A correſpondent laments, that no ſooner does a gentleman of fair character and independant principles offer his ſervices to the public, and ſtand forth as a real friend to the people, than every invidious time-ſerving ſcoundrel thinks himſelf at liberty to throw dirt in his face. Upon this noble principle the patriotic Sheriff, Sir Watkin Lewes, hath faithfully ſerved the community, and for his extraordinary zeal and ſerviges he has been groſly abuſed.

The Eaſt-India regulating bill is the joint production of Lord North, and Adjutant Grey Cooper. Neither the Solicitor, nor the Attorney General, were conſulted. Lord Mansfield, being aſked by the miniſter, how he would act with regard to it in the Houſe of Lords, declared, if he went thither, he muſt expoſe and throw it out, as being contrary to the moſt obvious principles of law and the conſtitution. Lord Shelburne, and his party, however, ſupported it in both Houſes, becauſe they wanted places. Were it not that Lord N. declared he would reſign, and throw the miniſtry into confuſion, the bill would have been rejected; and it was ſuffered to paſs only upon promiſe of its not being carried into execution, and of having another ſubſtituted it its place next ſeſſion. The public may depend upon this as fact.

Accounts lately received by the Spaniſh Court from South-America, mention the progreſs ſtill making by the rebellious natives, and that ſeveral towns on the Southern coaſt, beſides thoſe already mentioned, have been deſtroyed by them, with many of the inhabitants, as well Indians as Spaniards.

Sir Charles Frederick has taken great umbrage at the ſuppoſed indignity offered to him in not being invited, as well as Lord Townſhend and General Conway, to partake of the King's entertainment

STOCKHOLM, June 15.

THE King hath changed the days for giving audience to his people; he will not have any more than on Wednesdays in the afternoon, and in his apartments, and all thoſe, who have not ſome reaſonable requeſt to make, will be ſent away. The abuſe which ſome perſons have made of theſe audiences, by coming to demand alms, with a petition in their hand, or by haranguing his Majeſty about whimſical and ridiculous projects, hath occaſioned this new arrangement.

Turin, June 7. The King, accompanied by the Prince of Piedmont and the Duke de Chablais, ſet out this day for Alexandria, Villa Franca and Tortona, in order to view the fortifications.

Beſides the meaſures which the King hath taken to revive plenty in his ſtates, which have been exhauſted by too great an exportation, his Majeſty hath juſt given orders, that all the neceſſiteus men, women or children, be employed to work on his account, on the roads and other public works, in the environs of this capital.

The men and women receive each day, beſides nouriſhment, five-pence; and children, capable of carrying a haſket, two-pence and ſix deniers, excluſive of lodging, which is provided for them in the place where they work.

Thoſe perſons who are unable to work, the King hath cauſed to retire into our hoſpitals, and no perſon is permitted to aſk alms without a ticket from the office of Police. Foreigners muſt return to their own homes, and neceſſaries will be given them for the journey. Two Clergymen are alſo appointed by order of his Majeſty to inſtruct the poor in the principles of religion, on Sundays and Holidays.

LONDON, July 1.

Extract of a Letter from Warſaw, June 12.

"We have received accounts from Moldavia, that the young Prince Peter Repnin, Colonel of a regiment of Foot, and brother to the late Ruſſian Ambaſſador here of that name, received orders to paſs the Danube with 2000 men, attack a ſtrong Turkiſh poſt, and, if poſſible, to drive the enemy out of it; but he found the Turks much more numerous than they were repreſented. They ſurrounded him immediately, and when he found he could not maſter them, he endeavoured to regain his ſhips, which he did with amazing valour, but unfortunately the ſhip he was in was ſtranded, and the Turks in conſequence attacked him; he took all the Officers with him, and fought with the greateſt bravery, till he had received three wounds, and fell down with the loſs of ſo much blood, and thus was made a priſoner by the Turks. He was immediately carried to the Grand Viſir's army. This affair coſt the Ruſſians 300 men. It is ſaid ſome of the Officers will have to anſwer for their conduct to Count Romanzow."

July 2. The following circumſtance reflects great honour on his Majeſty: When he arrived at Portſmouth he obſerved, that all the cooks employed were Frenchmen, and turning to Lord Sandwich, who was at this time with him, ſaid, "Surely I am not in my own dominions, for they are all French people about me; this is a ſight I did not expect to ſee." On Friday, when he dined on board Lord Sandwich's yacht, he was highly pleaſed with his dinner; Lord Sandwich then acquainted his Majeſty, it was dreſſed by an Engliſh cook, which ſerved for a whet to his appetite, for he eat much more than he had done any of the preceding days, and declared, that he thought no cooks could dreſs a dinner like an Engliſhman. How praiſe-worthy would it be in our nobility, and people of fortune, to emulate the conduct of his Majeſty in this particular; for by preferring their countrymen to foreigners they would not only render this nation happy, but prevent many extravagancies, and eſcape many impoſitions.

Extract of a Letter from Paris, June 21.

"The Duke de Lauſan, who is but 26 years of age, and the only heir of the Houſe of Biron, having fallen in love with an Engliſh lady, he followed her to England, where he has been for a long time. His Uncle, the Marſhal, was in hopes he would have returned for the review of the French guards, as he has a company; but being diſappointed, was obliged to make an apology to the King for his abſence. The Marſhal and the Duke de Gontault, having wrote to the Duke de Lauſan, reproached him in ſuch terms as his conduct deſerved, but he returned no other anſwer, than ſending his reſignation as Captain, ſignifying to them at the ſame time, that he did not care a f--t for the French nation, and that he would live and die among the Engliſh."

July 3. Yeſterday Lord North, and ſeveral of the foreign Miniſters and Noblemen, dined with the Weſt-India Merchants, at a ſuperb entertainment at the London Tavern: Succeſs to trade was the general toaſt.

Extract of a Letter from Portſmouth, June 30.

"When the King was walking round the ramparts of this garriſon, he expreſſed a deſire to go down the High-ſtreet, but was perſuaded from it by Lord Robert Bertie, who told him, that there was too great a croud of people about him, and that, beſides, neither his carriage or guards were at hand. His Majeſty replied, "What need have I of guards, whilſt ſo many of my faithful ſubjects are round me?" His Majeſty's great condeſcenſion and behaviour, during his ſtay among us, has entirely won the hearts of all his ſubjects here, and he muſt, from the tour, experience in ſome degree what it is to reign over a brave and free people."

The moſt diſtinguiſhed character of the young Emperor of Germany is, his attention to the wants of his fellow creatures; to relieve them has been his chiefeſt care; he has been ſeen to drop a tear more than once at their diſtreſſes, when told him, and has been remarkably aſſiduous in finding out and putting the means in execution to extricate them from the burthen of their miſeries.

This day a Common Hall was held at Guildhall for the election of a Sheriff of this city, &c. in the room of Alderman Plomer, who was choſen with Mr. Sayre, on Midſummer Day laſt, but has ſince paid his fine, to be excuſed ſerving the ſaid office, when all the Aldermen who have not yet ſerved Sheriff were put up, as well as the Gentlemen who were drank to in former Mayoralties: Hardly any hands were held up for either of them, except a few for Mr. Kirkman. After which, William Lee, Eſq; Citizen and Haberdaſher, a known and approved friend of liberty, was nominated; when almoſt every hand in the Hall was lifted up in his favour, and he was declared duly elected almoſt unanimouſly.

Mr. Lee then came forward, and in a genteel ſpeech thanked the Livery for their choice of him; aſſuring them, that they may rely on the utmoſt exertion of his abilities in ſupport of the rights and liberties of his Fellow-citizens.

Previous to the election, the Recorder addreſſed himſelf to the Livery on the ſubject of the meeting, and recommended moderation and tranquility in their proceedings.

July 6. Letters from Stockholm, dated the 25th of May, adviſe, that the Sieur Troil, ſon of the late Archbiſhop of Upſal, is on his way to that city, after having made a voyage to Iceland, in company with Mr. Banks. He aſſerts, that the language now ſpoken in the above iſland is abſolutely the ſame with that which is preſerved in the Swediſh books, written in the eighth century, which, he ſays, is a proof of the great connection that iſland has always had with the kingdom of Sweden.

It is confidently aſſerted, that the Court of Directors of the Eaſt-India Company are determined to take up this year into their ſervice no more than twelve ſhips, as they find the great hurt it has been to the Company, ſending out ſuch a number of ſhips yearly; whereby they are vaſtly overſtocked with goods, which are abſolutely ſpoiling, ſome having lain in their warehouſes for ſeven years, particularly tea.

A letter from Edinburgh mentions, that ſome Gentlemen of that city have been ſo very ſucceſsful in their attempts to improve the cultivation of madder, that there is great reaſon to believe they will, in a few ſeaſons, be able to bring it to as great perfection as that imported from Holland.

July 8. It is impoſſible to deſcribe the confuſion in trade created by the laſt act reſpecting the gold coin. The India regulating bill, infamous as it is, has not more iniquity, nor will it be attended with more inconvenience, than that which impowers any indiſcriminate perſons to cut in two ſuch guineas as may be offered them, and which appear to want more weight than ſhould be allowed for reaſonable wear; the not aſcertaining the proportion of that reaſonable wear is beyond meaſure big with miſchief; the honeſt and induſtrious are left a prey to avarice, malice and villainy; the city of London is already thrown out of every line of regularity in buſineſs, and in a week or two the confuſion will be general throughout the kingdom.

The above act alluded to is confidently reported to have been fabricated by direction of the Treaſury Board, to have been brought into the Lower Houſe by Lord North's Secretary, and to have paſſed the Commons and Lords, and finally to have received the King's aſſent, without being in the leaſt noticed or attended to by any Member of either Senatorial Aſſembly.

What ſort of Members of Parliament muſt thoſe be, who now expreſs their amazement and concern at the act for preventing the currency of clipped money? And yet it is certain that three-fourths of both Houſes are equally aſtoniſhed and concerned that ſo unfair, ſo iniquitous, and ſo injurious a bill, ſhould ever have paſſed into a law.

Yeſterday came on to be tried at Weſtminſter-hall, before Lord Manſfield, by a ſpecial jury, Iſſues directed out of Chancery, in which Mr. Conner, the nephew and adminiſtrator of the late General Stanwix, was plaintiff, and Mrs. Sowle, the mother of Mrs. Stanwix, the General's wife, defendant; to try 1ſt, Whether Mrs. Stanwix ſurvived the General, her huſband? 2d, Whether Miſs Stanwix ſurvived the General, her father? When, upon principles laid down by Lord Manſfield, the Jury found both the iſſues for the petitioner; by which verdict his right to the perſonal eſtate of the General is eſtabliſhed againſt the ſeveral claims of Mrs. Sowle, the repreſentative of Mrs. Stanwix, to a third of the eſtate; and Mr. Holmes, the Adminiſtrator to Miſs Stanwix, to the whole.--The General, his wife, and daughter, were ſhipwrecked about 6 years ago in their paſſage from Dublin to Cheſter. The claim of Mrs. Sowle was founded on the preſumption, that her daughter ſurvived the General, her huſband; and the claim of Mr. Holmes, on the contradictory preſumptions, that the General ſurvived his wife, and that Miſs Stanwix ſurvived her father in the wreck. A rule was made upon the trial, to put an end to the ſeveral ſuits in Chancery, and to ſettle every thing between the contending parties.

A Correſpondent remarks, that if the late act for regulating the circulation of the gold coin is ſtrictly adhered to, as ſome people have already begun to do, the greateſt part of the guineas now current will be ſtopt; the act only provides for a reaſonable allowance being made for the wear, and it is an eſtabliſhed rule in the gold trade, that a guinea will not loſe, by fair wear, above 8d. in 100 years, and two-thirds of the guineas now current in London, and almoſt all in the country, want above 1s.

We are informed, that Lord Dartmouth has nominated Col. George Mercer to be Governor of the new colony on the Ohio, which ſhould be called Pittſylvania. Our correſpondent obſerves, that this act is a ſtrong proof of his Lordſhip's ſtrict juſtice, as well as of his good judgment. Colonel Mercer has not only great public merit to recommend him, but few men poſſeſs ſo many amiable qualities, either as a friend or as a gentleman.----He is a native of Virginia, and received a very liberal education at the College of Williamſburgh; he afterwards ſtudied the law, and though he might have lived very independantly and quietly on the eſtate which his father had portioned him with, yet he preferred the hazardous ſervice of his country to a life of eaſe; he accepted of a military commiſſion at the commencement of the late war, and ſerved in different ranks, till the regiment he belonged to was reduced; he alſo repreſented a county in the General Aſſembly of that province. In 1763 he came over to England to ſolicit for a confirmation of grants of land for the Ohio Company, in the very ſpot where the new government is to be eſtabliſhed; and as a public teſtimony of his zealous and diſintereſted ſervices, the Governor, Council and Aſſembly, of Virginia, recommended him to his Majeſty. When the famous Stamp-act paſſed, the late Mr. Grenville appointed him Stamp-maſter in Virginia, in which difficult office he acquitted himſelf with ſo much diligence and firmneſs, as juſtly to entitle him to the entire approbation of Parliament and Adminiſtration; and though he was at the head of the liſt of thoſe gentlemen who were recommended by the Houſe of Commons to his Majeſty, for ſome adequate employment, when the act was repealed, yet he is the only one of them who has not been provided for. All theſe circumſtances, ſo highly recommendatory of him, with a character perfectly unexceptionable, ſeem only to have operated as a bar to his preferment; till Lord Dartmouth (who has always been diſtinguiſhable for his upright and equitable conduct) rewarded his long neglected merit. The propriety of his choice redounds much to his Lordſhip's wiſdom, as well as to his honour, for Colonel Mercer's perfect knowledge of that country, his thorough acquaintance of the American laws, and the well-known candour, integrity, and firmneſs of his mind (excluſive of his other fair pretenſions) render him better qualified for that appointment than almoſt any other man.

CHARLES-TOWN (in South-Carolina) Auguſt 17.

In the UPPER HOUSE of ASSEMBLY,
Dies Saturni, the 4th Day of Auguſt, 1773.

ORDERED,

THAT the following PROCEEDINGS of this Houſe be printed and made public.

SOUTH-CAROLINA.

To the Honourable WILLIAM BULL, Eſq; Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief, in and over the ſaid Province.

The ADDRESS of the UPPER HOUSE of ASSEMBLY.

May it pleaſe your Honour,

WE, his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Upper Houſe of Aſſembly, with an ardent Deſire to diſcharge our Duty to our moſt gracious Sovereign, and to the Public, do beg Leave to addreſs your Honour upon the State of the Treaſury, which we have taken into our moſt ſerious Conſideration.

We have made an Enquiry into this truly momentous Subject with that Candour and Temper of Mind, which ought to take Place in all Deliberations, tending to promote the Public Good.

The Reſult of our Enquiries, we are truly ſorry to ſay, has impreſſed upon us Ideas of the moſt alarming Nature, no leſs alarming, than the certain Proſpect, that the Public Treaſury muſt very ſhortly ſtop Payment, unleſs the moſt ſpeedy and moſt effectual Steps are taken to prevent ſo fatal an Event; the Conſequences of which muſt not only overwhelm the Public with Diſtreſs at Home, but give almoſt a mortal Wound to its Credit Abroad.

Although we are not the immediate Repreſentatives of the People, yet we are among the Guardians of the Public; we therefore cannot, with a criminal Silence, ſee the Intereſts and the Honour of this Province ſuffer a cruel Wound by the Failure of the Public Treaſury; the Credit of which has always been, and is as yet, at leaſt, equal to the Credit of any in America.

Upon examining the Treaſury Accounts, it appeared to this Houſe, that on the firſt Day of June laſt, the Sum of £127,674 was due on Account of Public Duties, of which large Sum the Treaſurers could not procure one Shilling: That only the ſmall Sum of £10,000 was actually in the Treaſury, iſſuable upon the many and large Demands to which it is liable, and that various Sums, to the Amount of £158,476, had at divers Times been drawn out of the Treaſury, by Virtue of Laws directing ſuch Sums to be advanced out of any of the Funds, which Sums were afterwards to be replaced by a General Tax, as is uſual in ſuch Caſes.

The trading Part of this Province may now ſincerely lament, that a Tax Bill has not been paſſed into a Law ſince the year 1769. If Tax Bills had been paſſed ſince that Time, they would as uſual have replaced in the Treaſury that large Sum of £158,476, and by that Means at this Day, the Sum of £168,476 would actually be in the Treaſury, iſſuable and ready, as it ought to be, to anſwer every legal Demand; in ſuch a Caſe, no Failure in the Treaſury could have been now apprehended, and therefore there would not have been any Neceſſity to compel the Payment of the Money due to the Treaſury on Account of Duties.

In Juſtice as well to the Public as to this Houſe, we do aſſure your Honour, that at all Times we have been ready to give our Concurrence to any Tax Bill which could be of Public Benefit, framed upon the fundamental Principles of the Conſtitution; and this Houſe does likewiſe aſſure your Honour, that if we had given our Concurrence to any Tax Bill, which has been brought up to us ſince the Year 1769, we ſhould have ſurrendered our Rights as Legiſlators, and ſhould thereby have betrayed that Conſtitution, by which we are bound to regulate our Proceedings.

Poſſeſſed as we are of the tender Sentiments of Humanity, and unwilling to create Diſtreſs to any Part of the Community, yet, anxious for the public Credit, we cannot but recur to the indiſpenſible Duties of our Station. We do therefore moſt humbly addreſs your Honour, that you will be pleaſed to order the Attorney-General to compel thoſe Perſons who have been longeſt indebted for Public Duties forthwith to pay into the Public Treaſury the Sum of £50,000, and that your Honour at the ſame Time will be pleaſed to order the Attorney-General, that after the Expiration of three Months, he ſhall cauſe the Remainder of the Sum owing for Duties on the Firſt Day of June laſt, to be paid as ſoon as may be poſſible.

By Order of the Houſe,

EGERTON LEIGH.

In the Upper-Houſe of Aſſembly, the 14th Day of Auguſt, 1773.

Sir Egerton Leigh reported, That this Houſe had preſented their Addreſs to his Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, and that his Honour had been pleaſed to make the following ANSWER to it.

Honourable Gentlemen,

I SHALL without Loſs of Time give ſuch Directions as may prevent the alarming Event relative to the Public Treaſury, mentioned in your Addreſs, and this I ſhall take Care to do in ſuch Manner, and at ſuch Periods, as ſhall appear to me to be effectually conducive to that End, which I hope will create no Diſtreſs to any Part of the Community, as I intend it ſhall occaſion as few Inconveniences to the Perſons concerned, as can conſiſt with the Public Service.

Auguſt 14, 1773. WILLIAM BULL.

Reſolved, That a Committee be appointed to take the Anſwer of his Honour the Lieutenant-Governor to the Addreſs of this Houſe into Conſideration, and that Mr. Stuart, Mr. Chief Juſtice, and Mr. William Henry Drayton, be a Committee for that Purpoſe.

Ordered, That the ſaid Committee do ſit immediately.

Mr. Drayton reported from the Committee to conſider of his Honour the Lieutenant-Governor's Anſwer to the Addreſs of this Houſe, that they were ready to make their Report when the Houſe would be pleaſed to receive the ſame.

Reſolved, That the Report be received immediately; Mr. Drayton read the Report, and delivered it in at the Clerk's Table, where it was again read, and a Debate thereupon aroſe; and a Motion being made that the Houſe do now adjourn.

The Houſe adjourned till Five o'Clock this Afternoon.

Dies Saturni, 14th Auguſt, 1773. P. M.

The Houſe proceeded to take into Conſideration, the Anſwer of his Honour the Lieutenant-Governor to the Addreſs of this Houſe, and after ſome Time ſpent in Debate thereupon, the Houſe unanimouſly came to the following RESOLUTIONS:

Reſolved, That it is not only the undoubted Right, but it is the indiſpenſible Duty of this Houſe, at all Times, to examine into the State of the Public Treaſury, and to addreſs, counſel and adviſe the Governor in every Matter relative thereto, which ſhall appear to this Houſe to be conducive to the Public Credit and Honour, and to the Safety and Protection of the Public Treaſure.

Reſolved, That it is the Opinion of this Houſe, that the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, contains Matter of the utmoſt Importance to the Public, and is at the ſame Time conceived in Terms both dutiful and reſpectful to his Honour.

Reſolved, That it is the Opinion of this Houſe, that the Advice contained in the ſaid Addreſs is in Subſtance wholeſome, beneficial and expedient.

Reſolved, That this Houſe will, under every Diſcouragement, loyally, dutifully, and humbly render their Counſel and Advice when the Credit of the Country is at Stake; and the rather, as one Branch of the Legiſlature has hitherto omitted to interpoſe its provident Care, to avert the fatal Conſequences ariſing from the preſent declining State of Public Credit.

Reſolved, That this Houſe is actuated by the moſt ſincere and diſintereſted Motives of Loyalty and Duty to the King, and of the moſt tender Affection and Regard to the laſting Happineſs and Welfare of this Country.

MESSAGE from the Honourable WILLIAM BULL, Eſq; Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief, in and over his Majeſty's Province of SOUTH-CAROLINA, to the COMMONS HOUSE of ASSEMBLY, on Wedneſday, Auguſt 11, 1773.

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen,

AS you acquainted me Yeſterday, that you were met and ready to proceed on Buſineſs, as I have nothing in Command from his Majeſty, or any new Matter at preſent to lay before the General Aſſembly, I think proper to decline the Public Formality of opening the Seſſion with a Speech: I therefore, by Meſſage, now propound to you in general, to take under Conſideration ſuch Matters as are conducive to the Public Welfare, and have been recommended by me upon former Occaſions, but have unhappily not been brought to Perfection. The only Matter which I think it my Duty particularly to mention to you is, that the making ſpeedy Proviſion for the Public Debts, which by an Intermiſſion of Taxes for ſeveral Years are now greatly accumulated, and have a Tendency to leſſen the Public Credit, cannot fail to appear to you to be very juſt and neceſſary: I therefore earneſtly deſire you to make effectual Proviſion for the ſame accordingly.

WILLIAM BULL.

The ASSEMBLY'S ANSWER.

May it pleaſe your Honour,

IN Anſwer to your Honour's Meſſage of Yeſterday, this Houſe beg Leave to acquaint your Honour, that they are ready and willing to enter immediately upon the Conſideration of all Matters conducive to the Public Welfare, whether ſuch as have been heretofore recommended by your Honour, or ſuch as may occur to themſelves; and they are particularly deſirous, and will, as ſoon as they are allowed to do it conſiſtently with the Preſervation of the Rights of the People, apply themſelves with all poſſible Speed, to make ample Proviſion for all the Public Debts, which is ſo earneſtly recommended in your Honour's Meſſage; and likewiſe to grant a Sum that may be thought neceſſary to put this Town and Harbour into ſome Poſture of Defence, that it may not become a Prey to any Invader.

This Houſe are perſuaded, your Honour cannot but think they did every Thing in their Power, at their laſt Meeting, to forward the Payment of the Public Debts, as in a very few Days after their Sitting a Tax-Bill, including all ſuch Demands on the Province as had been already liquidated and confirmed by former Aſſemblies, was prepared and ſent by them to the Council, and Committees were beſides appointed to examine and ſettle all other Accounts againſt the Public, up to the 31ſt of December laſt: Theſe too would have been amply provided for in another Tax-Bill, before the Houſe would have thought of deſiring a Receſs, notwithſtanding the very inconvenient Seaſon at which they were then ſitting; but chagrined at finding the Council had rejected the Tax-Bill they had already ſent them, and having the greateſt Reaſon to believe that any longer Attendance would be altogether fruitleſs and unſerviceable to the Public, they were reduced to the Neceſſity of aſking your Honour for Leave to adjourn.

That no farther Time may be loſt in preparing and ſending up to his Majeſty's Council, Tax-Bill after Tax-Bill, to be rendered ineffectual, by their rejecting them, we beg Leave with all Deference and Humility to your Honour, as his Majeſty's Repreſentative, and at the ſame Time, with a Firmneſs becoming a free and united People, founded on the deepeſt Senſe of the Duty they owe to their Conſtituents, to aſſure your Honour, that this Houſe will never inſert the Clauſe recommended in the Inſtruction, dated 14th April, 1770, in any Money-Bill whatever, and we truſt no Aſſembly will ever be found in this Province ſo totally regardleſs of the moſt eſſential Rights of the People as to do ſo, or in ſhort, to ſuffer themſelves to be influenced, either directly or indirectly, by any Miniſterial Inſtruction, in the originating and framing of any ſuch Bills: But, we beg Leave to aſſure your Honour, that the Moment the Houſe have Reaſon to think this unconſtitutional Obſtruction to Public Buſineſs is removed, they will, with the greateſt

Chearfulneſs, ſet about framing and prepairing another Tax-Bill, till then they cannot but deem the Attempt altogether needleſs.

By Order of the Houſe,

Aug. 12, 1773. RAWLINS LOWNDES, Speaker.

PROVIDENCE, Auguſt 21.

On Monday laſt a girl of about 12 years of age was detected in paſſing counterfeit dollars. Her father was immediately apprehended, and committed to goal. In his pocket-book, which he found means to ſecret while in cuſtody of the officer, a counterfeit New-York bill was found. Another perſon has ſince been committed to goal, and it is expected further diſcoveries will be made. The dollars are dated 1770, and ſo badly executed, that the fraud may be eaſily diſcovered.

NEW-YORK, September 2.

Mr. Timothy Soper, the Mate of Capt. Moore, informs, that on the 28th of April laſt, the ſloop-----Capt. Fairly, of this place, put in to Hiſpaniola in diſtreſs, that the Spaniards immediately ſeized the veſſel and cargoe, and after plundering the Captain and his people, carried them to the priſon, and put them in irons, where they all remain in cloſe confinement, except the above Timothy Soper, who was then Capt. Fairly's Mate, and made his eſcape the 4th of Auguſt.

On Friday laſt died, aged 23, Miſs Suſanna Finley, daughter of the Rev. Dr. Finley, late Preſident of Naſſau-College, New-Jerſey; ſhe was truly amiable in her manners, and uncommonly reſigned and exemplary in her death.

It is an incident moſt memorable and peculiar, that the citizens of London ſhould this year have made choice of both Sheriffs from this continent, namely Mr. Stephen Sayre, a native of Long-Iſland, in this province, and Dr. William Lee, who was born in Virginia, and is the perſon who has ſo eminently diſtinguiſhed himſelf as a political writer, under the ſignature of Junius Americanus. Indeed the Liverymen have ever manifeſted the ſteadieſt ſupport of all thoſe, who approve themſelves heartily devoted to their principles.

A ſcouting party of the Oneida Indians, about three weeks ago, returned from an attack of ſome of their enemies to the ſouthward, either Choctaws or Cerokees; they brought ſix priſoners with them, not one of which has been adopted by the inhabitants of their Caſtle, ſo of courſe they are to be roaſted alive, agreeable to the Indian cuſtom, and they have ſent notice of their intention to the ſeveral towns of the Five Nations, and invited them to be preſent at this horrible cataſtrophe. When theſe feroſe Bipeds take any of their enemies in action, it is an invariable rule to give entertainments to their friends far and near, and to render their Gaude the more brilliant, their priſoners are brough forth, and put to death in the abovementioned excruciating manner provided none of the families of that caſtle, from whence the warriors departed, agree to adopt them, a circumſtance that generally happens, but on the above occaſion they were all inexorable.

PHILADELPHIA, September 8.

On Thurſday, the 5th of Auguſt laſt, departed this Life, at Alexandria, in Virginia, Mrs. MARY THOM, and on the Sabbath following, the Rev. Mr. WILLIAM THOM. They both died of an ardent Fever, and were decently interred in the Burial-ground of the Preſbyterians in that Town.--------Mr. Thom, the Son of a worthy Clergyman, early diſcovered an extenſive Memory, a quick Penetration, and a ſtrong Judgment. Theſe happy Talents were improved by a liberal Education. His Zeal for Religion engaged him to enter into the ſacred Office of the Miniſtry in the 21ſt Year of his Age. He adorned that exalted Station. His public Performances were received with Approbation by all, who heard them. He explained and enforced the moſt important Truths of Chriſtianity. A lively Imagination enabled him to paint Vice in the moſt ſtriking Colours, and to repreſent Piety and Virtue in the moſt amiable Light. He had a happy Talent of communicating his Thoughts. His Language was flowery, yet obvious to the meaneſt Capacity. Senſible of the Importance of religious Truths, he ſpoke with that Warmth, which engaged the Attention, and affected the Hearts of his Hearers.-----He was equally worthy of Eſteem in private as in public Life. He well deſerved the Character of a ſincere Chriſtian,---of an affectionate and dutiful Son,---of a generous Friend,---and of a chearful and agreeable Companion. Free from all Auſterity and Moroſeneſs, he cultivated a laudable Charity to thoſe, who differed from him in religious Sentiments. Many Congregations invited him to become their Paſtor, but the Proſpect of extenſive Uſefulneſs engaged him to accept the unanimous Invitation of the People of Alexandria. He lived happy in the Love and Eſteem of Perſons of all religious Denominations in that Place, and to their inexpreſſible Sorrow was removed by Death, in the 23d Year of his Age, in the Bloom of Youth, and in the Midſt of growing Uſefulneſs.

Captain Jones, from London, on the 10th ult. in Lat. 36: 57, Long. 59: 51, ſpoke the Ship Jamaica, Captain Wilſon, from Jamaica for Briſtol, out 6 Weeks; 14th, in Lat. 38: 9, Long. 64: 54, ſpoke a Snow, Captain Himſeff, from Maryland for Cork; 19th, in Lat. 38: 13, Long. 70: 8, ſpoke a Brig, from New-York for Newfoundland; and on the 24th, in Lat. 35: 45, Long. 72: 25, he ſpoke the Ship Friendſhip, Captain Burk, from Jamaica for Liverpool, out 4 Weeks, all well.

Captain Correy, from Dublin, on the 12th ult. in Lat. 31, Long. 67: 30, ſpoke a Brig, Captain Woodhouſe, from New-York for Jamaica, out 13 Days; the ſame Day ſpoke the Brig Lively, Captain Hall, from Jamaica for Liverpool, out 20 Days; and on the 20th, in Lat. 38: 13, Long. 68: 30, he ſpoke a Sloop, Captain Drew, from this Port for London, out 5 Days, all well.

To the FREEHOLDERS, and other ELECTORS, for the County and Borough of CHESTER,

GENTLEMEN,

I RETURN you my moſt ſincere Thanks, for voting me higheſt on the Return for the Sheriff's Office at the laſt Election; and as I intend to ſtand a Candidate, at the enſuing Election, for the ſaid Office, I earneſtly requeſt the Favour of your Votes and Intereſt for the ſame, which Favour ſhall be gratefully acknowledged, and kept in remembrance, by

† Your ſincere Friend,

September 6, 1773. NATHANIEL VERNON.

Cheſter, September 6, 1773.

To the FREEHOLDERS, and others, ELECTORS for the Borough and County of CHESTER,

GENTLEMEN,

AS our preſent Coroner, John Croſby, junior, Eſq; propoſes to decline ſerving any longer in that Office, and as I intend to ſtand a Candidate for the Office of Coroner, for this County, at the enſuing Election; I therefore take this public Method of requeſting the Favour of your Votes and Intereſt for the ſaid Office, which Favour will greatly oblige,

Your aſſured Friend and Well-wiſher,

¶ WILLIAM KERLIN.

Philadelphia, Auguſt 24, 1773.

WHEREAS by an Act of General Aſſembly of the Province of Pennſylvania, paſſed in the 13th Year of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, "An Act appointing Wardens "for the Port of Philadelphia, and for other Purpoſes therein "mentioned," it is among other Things enacted and declared, that "whereas a Light-Houſe has been erected on Cape-Henlopen, "and ſundry Buoys and Beacons have been, and are to be, "fixed in the Bay and River Delaware, for the more convenient "and ſafe Navigation to and from the ſaid Port of Philadelphia, "at a great Expence; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, that if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall, after the Publication "of this Act, remove or deſtroy, or be aiding and aſſiſting in the "Removal or Deſtruction of any of the ſaid Buoys or Beacons, "or ſhall burn, or otherwiſe deſtroy, or be aiding or aſſiſting in "the burning or deſtroying the ſaid Light-Houſe, and ſhall be "convicted thereof, in any Court of Quarter Seſſions, in any "City or County in this Province, where he or ſhe ſhall be "apprehended, or to which he or ſhe may be brought, if apprehended in another Government, ſhall forfeit and pay the "Sum of One Thouſand Pounds, and ſuffer three Years Impriſonment, without Bail or Mainprize, and be whipped once in "every Year, during ſuch Impriſonment, at the common "Whipping-poſt, with any Number of Laſhes, well laid on "his bare Back, not exceeding Thirty-nine."

And whereas a Buoy which was fixed on the Brown in the ſaid Bay, has been removed therefrom by ſome evil-minded Perſon or Perſons, to the great Danger of the Navigation of the ſame, the Wardens in a full Board held this Day have unanimouſly reſolved, and do hereby offer a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS to any Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall diſcover the Author or Authors, ſo as he or they be fully convicted thereof. By Order of the Board,

PETER REEVE, Preſident.

THE Members of the Library Company of Philadelphia are hereby notified, that the Library is removed from the State-Houſe to Carpenters-Hall, where Attendance is given by the Librarian, for lending out Books every Week-day, from two o'Clock in the Afternoon until Seven. The Fines for non-returning of Books, agreeable to the Time limited in the Note, is altered to Two-pence per Diem.

By Order of the Directors,

Sept. 6, 1773. WILLIAM ATTMORE, Secretary.

To the FREEMEN of the City of PHILADELPHIA,

GENTLEMEN,

THE public Teſtimony you have given of your good Opinion of me, by electing me one of your Burgeſſes for the laſt two years, merits my ſincere Thanks, and warmeſt Acknowledgments; I did myſelf the Honour laſt Year to inform you, that it was then extremely inconvenient to me to ſerve you longer in that Station; but, I now acquaint you, that I muſt abſolutely decline it: You will, therefore, be pleaſed, at the enſuing Election, to fix your Choice on ſome other Perſon to repreſent you, inſtead of Your reſpectful Friend,

Sept. 1, 1773. † SAMUEL SHOEMAKER.

To the FREEHOLDERS, and others, ELECTORS for the City and County of PHILADELPHIA,

GENTLEMEN,

ENCOURAGED by the favourable Sentiments you have formerly ſhewn towards me, and the Hope of your Countenance and Support on the preſent Occaſion, I now beg the Favour of your Votes and Intereſt, for the Sheriff's Office, at the next Election; in which, ſhould I have the Happineſs to ſucceed, I will uſe my utmoſt Endeavours to merit your future Eſteem, by a faithful Diſcharge of the Truſt repoſed in me, and a grateful Remembrance of the Favour conferred on,

GENTLEMEN, your obliged Friend, and humble Servant,

ENOCH STORY.

To the FREEHOLDERS, and others, ELECTORS for the City and County of PHILADELPHIA,

GENTLEMEN,

ENCOURAGED by the Honour you did me, in having placed me on the Return for the Office of Sheriff at the laſt Election, for which I return you my ſincere and unfeigned Thanks, I ſtill intend to continue a Candidate for that Office, and again humbly ſolicit the Favour and Continuance of your Votes and Intereſt, at the enſuing Election, which ſhall be acknowledged, with the utmoſt Gratitude, by,

GENTLEMEN, your Friend and humble Servant,

WILLIAM DEWEES.

To the FREEHOLDERS, and others, ELECTORS for the City and County of PHILADELPHIA,

GENTLEMEN,

I RETURN you my moſt ſincere Thanks for your paſt Favours, and as I intend to ſtand a Candidate for the Sheriff's Office, do now requeſt the Favour of your Votes and Intereſt, at the enſuing Election, which will much oblige,

Your Friend and humble Servant,

JOSEPH REDMAN.

To the FREEHOLDERS, and others, ELECTORS of the City and County of PHILADELPHIA,

GENTLEMEN,

I RETURN you my ſincere Thanks for the Honour you conferred on me, in voting me on the Return for CORONER, for ſeveral Years paſt. Upon the Deceaſe of Caleb Caſh, Eſq; his Honour the Governor was pleaſed to appoint me to that Office, for the Remainder of the Year, wherein I ſhall endeavour to acquit myſelf with the utmoſt Fidelity; and as I intend to ſtand a Candidate for the ſame, at the enſuing Election, I earneſtly entreat the Favour of your Votes and Intereſt, which ſhall be gratefully acknowledged by, GENTLEMEN,

Your reſpectful and obliged Friend,

July 19, 1773. § JOHN KNIGHT, Coroner.

To the FREEHOLDERS, and others, ELECTORS of the City and County of PHILADELPHIA,

GENTLEMEN,

HAVING been voted on the Return for many Years paſt, with my late Friend Caleb Caſh, now deceaſed, for the Office of CORONER, I take this Opportunity to ſolicit your Votes and Intereſt, at the enſuing Election, for that Office, which ſhall be gratefully acknowledged by, your Friend, ¶ JOHN LUKENS.

To the FREEHOLDERS, and others, ELECTORS for the City and County of PHILADELPHIA,

GENTLEMEN,

BEING encouraged thereunto by ſeveral reſpectable families, I offer myſelf a candidate for the Coroner's Office, and requeſt your votes and intereſt, at the enſuing election; which favour ſhall be gratefully acknowledged by, your friend and humble ſervant, BENJAMIN ARMITAGE.

I alſo take this opportunity to inform the public in general, as well as my friends and acquaintance, that I have removed from the Anvil and Crown, in Second-ſtreet, near Spruce-ſtreet, to the Sign of the Anvil and Double Croſs Keys, at the corner of Cheſtnut and Fourth-ſtreets, where the Sign of the Death of the Fox has been formerly kept; and as I have now good ſtables, and other neceſſaries, for the accommodation of travellers, and others, I ſhall be obliged to all that will be pleaſed to favour me with their cuſtom.

To the FREEHOLDERS and other ELECTORS, for the City and County of PHILADELPHIA,

GENTLEMEN,

ENCOURAGED by the favourable Sentiments you have formerly ſhewn towards me, and being urged thereto by many reſpectable Families, I offer myſelf a Candidate for the Coroner's Office, and requeſt your Votes and Intereſt, at the enſuing Election; which Favour ſhall be gratefully acknowledged by,

Your ſincere Friend,

¶ WILLIAM MAULSBY.

To the FREEHOLDERS, and others, ELECTORS for the City and County of PHILADELPHIA,

GENTLEMEN,

AS the Office of CORONER is now become vacant, by the Death of the late worthy Caleb Caſh (and as it has been cuſtomary for ſuch who ſtand Candidates for the ſame, to beſpeak the Favour of the Public in this Manner) and from the great Encouragement I have received from many of my Friends, I intend to ſtand a Candidate for the ſaid Office at the enſuing Election: I therefore humbly requeſt your Votes and Intereſt for the ſaid Office, which ſhall be ever gratefully acknowledged by, GENTLEMEN, Your ſincere Friend,

July 14, 1773. ¶ BENJAMIN HUMPHREYS.

To the FREEHOLDERS, and others, ELECTORS for the City and County of PHILADELPHIA,

GENTLEMEN,

AS I intend to ſtand a Candidate for the CORONER's OFFICE, at the enſuing Election, I would beg the Favour of your Votes and Intereſt for the ſame, which ſhall be gratefully acknowledged by, GENTLEMEN,

¶ Your humble Servant, ELIJAH WEED.

Philadelphia, August 18, 1773.

TO BE SOLD,

EIGHT Hundred and sixty-four ACRES of LAND, situate on the river Delaware, at Monongohunck, in Oxford township, Sussex county, in the province of West New-Jersey. This tract consists of as good land as any in that part of the country, and has on the part of it which lies on the river a quantity of rich bottom land. There are three settlements in proper parts of the tract, accommodated with log-houses, barns, orchards, and other conveniencies; so that the whole may be divided into 3 plantations. It is well watered, Pequest creek, Beaver brook, and several other constant streams running through it. Part of the tract is lime-stone land, The situation is very convenient on account of water-carriage, as wheat may be transported to Philadelphia at little more than Seven-pence per bushel. The subscriber attends at Easton, in the province of Pennsylvania, every court, where, or in Philadelphia, he may be treated with as to the terms of sale. The whole will be sold together.

Also, to be sold, a tract of 150 acres of land, situate on Codorus creek, in the county of York, in the province of Pennsylvania, about six miles from York-town. There is an excellent mill-seat on this land, and a quantity of bottom which may be converted into meadow. Apply to SAMUEL JOHNSTON, Esq; in York-town.

Likewise, to be sold, two lots of ground in the city of Philadelphia, the one situate on the west side of Third-street, between Walnut and Spruce-streets, adjoining Samuel Powel, Esq; containing in Front 49½ feet, and in depth 199½ feet; the other, situate at the corner of Pine and Second-streets, near the New-Market, containing 60 feet on Pine, and 72 feet on Second-street, having a brick tenement erected thereon.

Persons desirous of removing into the back part of Pennsylvania, may purchase sundry tracts of very fine land, which the subscriber has for sale, in Cumberland and Bedford counties. For terms apply to RICHARD PETERS, junior.

Philadelphia, August 21, 1773.

ALEXANDER RUSSELL,

DANCING-MASTER,

WILL open SCHOOL, at the Assembly-Room, in Lodge-alley, Second-street, on Monday, the 13th of September next, for the Accomplishment of young Gentlemen and Ladies in that genteel Part of polite Education. Those Gentlemen and Ladies, who shall be pleased to entrust him with the Education of their Children, may be assured he will take particular Care of their Behaviour, as well as instruct them in every Branch of DANCING. He teaches the Minuet in the newest and most approved Method; likewise double and reverse Minuets, Britagne, single, double and triple Hornpipes, Cotilons, with a Variety of the newest Country Dances, as practised in the most polite Assemblies in Europe.

A Night Class will be opened for such young Gentlemen as cannot attend in the Day. ¶

August 19, 1773.

AS the subscriber intends removing, next October, to the Natchez, on the Mississippi, he will sell his plantation, in Bucks county, on very reasonable terms. It contains 320 acres, whereof 250 are cleared. The whole tract has been lately fenced, chiefly with cedar rails and white-oak posts. There are on it two bearing orchards, containing upwards of 300 trees, chiefly grafted, about 20 acres of meadow in good order, and as much more may be made at a small expence, about 70 acres of the arable land were manured last year, with mud, dung and lime, of which last article 50 bushels were laid on each acre. The plantation is well watered, having a constant stream running through the meadow, a great variety of springs, and an excellent well and pump, convenient to the dwelling-house. The subscriber has also to dispose of, a variety of instruments of husbandry, horses, breeding mares, cows and hogs, 45 acres of corn, which it is thought will yield upwards of 35 bushels per acre, four acres of buckwheat, and two of potatoes, a quantity of good hay, and other fodder, &c. On the above premises are a convenient dwelling-house and kitchen, a large garden, pretty good barn, a new cow-house and hay-loft, 70 feet long, an excellent cart-house, corn cribs and granaries, also a new cyder-mill and press.

The situation of the place renders it an agreeable habitation, being in a very healthful part of the country, and good neighbourhood, 31 miles from Philadelphia, 11 from Bristol, 7 from New-town, 3 from Trenton, and 1 below Mr. Yardley's Ferry. Whoever inclines to purchase the above plantation, with or without the stock, may know the terms, by applying to Mr. THOMAS BARCLAY, in Philadelphia; Dr. WILLIAM BRYANT, near Trenton; to THOMAS YARDLEY, Esq, or on the premises, to DANIEL CLARK.

Fredericksburg, Virginia, June 28, 1773.

THE ſubſcriber has for SALE the following tracts of LAND, in Fairfax county, one on Pohick Run, about 5 miles from the town of Colcheſter, and the ſame diſtance from Pohick warehouſe, containing 957 acres; the other on Four Mile Run, about 4 miles from Alexandria, containing 1225 acres; the ſoil of both is ſtiff and well ſuited to wheat, the laſt tract is very level, both have a ſufficiency of exceeding good meadow ground, and very valuable mill ſeats. It being very inconvenient for me to attend at ſuch a diſtance, the plats and title papers are left with Col. GEORGE MASON, of Gunſton, who is ſo obliging as to accept a power of ſettling the terms, with any perſon inclinable to purchaſe.

6 W. JAMES MERCER.

WE do hereby certify, that a certain Negroe man, named BOB, formerly the property of Machiminea Porter, of the county of Somerſet and province of Maryland, but now the property of Miller and Heſlop, of the county of Spotſylvania, and colony of Virginia, Merchants, is a SLAVE; that he was born ſuch, that his mother and all her children are ſuch, and that any thing to the contrary of their being any thing elſe than actual ſlaves, during their natural lives, they know not. Given under our hands, this 14th day of October, 1772.

William Vennables, William Horſey, John Mitchell, Caleb Balding, Zach. Maddux, Peter Culliaway, William Figgs, John Hamilton, William Vaughan. (Copy)

RUN away, early laſt December, from Mount-Pleaſant, Spotſylvania county, Virginia, the abovementioned NEGROE. I will give Ten Pounds reward, Virginia currency, to have him ſecured in any goal on this continent, on notice given in this GAZETTE; Twenty Pounds, if brought to Frederickſburg. When he went off he produced a forged paſs, ſigned with the name of William Smith, Gentleman, one of his Majeſty's juſtices of the peace for the county of Spotſylvania, called himſelf and paſſed as a free man, by the name of ROBERT ALEXANDER; but the above certificate will ſhow him to be a ſlave, as it is ſigned by ſeveral people who were formerly his owners. The dreſs he went off in was a drab Bath coat, a brown broadcloth waiſtcoat, buck breeches, yarn ſtockings, ſhoes and braſs buckles; but as he is a cunning artful villain, he may have changed his dreſs: He ſtole ſundry fine linen ſhirts, the property of Mr. William Heſlop, marked W. H. He is above ſix feet high, ſlim made, a very likely fellow, and is handy at all ſorts of plantation work, is by trade a ſawyer, having been bred to it from his infancy, and attended ſeveral ſaw-mills on the Eaſtern-ſhore (of which place he is a native) he likewiſe underſtands the houſe-carpenter's buſineſs. I expect he has puſhed to the northward, indeed he was followed as far as Annapolis, from whence I imagined he croſſed the Bay; if taken up in Maryland or Pennſylvania, and delivered to Mr. DAVID KERR, near Annapolis, Mr. JAMES JAFFRAY, in Baltimore, or Mr. WILLIAM TURNBULL, Merchant, Philadelphia, the above reward will be paid.

Virginia, May 25, 1773. JOHN MILLER.

Eaſton, Northampton County, July 14, 1773.

WHEREAS CATHERINE my wife has, for a long time paſt, behaved in a very unbecoming manner, and privately carried away, in the night time, a good deal of my houſhold goods, and other things, and has done her utmoſt to ruin me; as I intend in a ſhort time to remove from theſe parts, and being apprehenſive ſhe might run me in debt, or borrow on my account, I do hereby forewarn all perſons not to have any dealings with her, or take any thing of her, as they will anſwer me at law, and that I will not pay any debts of her contracting, or anſwer for any thing that ſhe borrows, after the date hereof. JOHN WAGLE. ¶

DEATH: A Poetical ESSAY.

By BEILBY PORTEUS, M. A.

FELLOW of CHRIST COLLEGE.

Ah! why will Kings forget that they are Men?
And Men that they are Brethren? Why delight
In human Sacrifice? Why burſt the Ties
Of Nature, that ſhould knit their Souls together
In one ſoft Bond of Amity and Love? PORTEUS.

THIS POEM obtained the Prize left by the laſt Will of Mr. SEATON, as determined by the Vice-Chancellor of Cambridge, &c.---A Gentleman in America, who poſſeſſeth both a literary and a religious Taſte, becauſe all Mankind are ſubject to the univerſal Empire of Death, wiſheth they would ſometimes deign to view this intereſting Scene, in the enlarged Sentiments of our Author, and therefore deſired the Promulgation of this American Edition.

 At ſaid WOODHOUSE's may now be purchaſed, Biſhop SHIPLEY's celebrated SERMON, preached in London, 1773, for conciliating the Affections of Britons and Americans.-----Fine Paper Nine-pence, common Paper Six-pence. Large Allowance to thoſe who buy Quantities to give away.

And as he ſhall make it his peculiar ſtudy to merit the approbation of all ſuch, who may pleaſe to employ him, ſo ſhall it be his conſtant endeavour to give, to the utmoſt of his power, entire ſatisfaction. He therefore flatters himſelf, that he, being a young beginner, will receive ſuitable encouragement from the generous public, which, if he ſhould be ſo happy as to attain, the favour, ſo conferred, ſhall be gratefully acknowledged, by the Public's moſt obedient, and very humble ſervant,

BENJAMIN JANUARY.

Auguſt 2, 1773.

RUN away, laſt night, from the ſubſcriber, living in Yorktown, an indented ſervant man, named JAMES SMITH, an Engliſhman, by trade a Barber, about 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, a well made ſtraight fellow, about 26 or 27 years of age; took with him, as he went off, a blue cloth coat, with a falling collar, lined with blue ſhaloon, and gilt buttons thereon, one white jean coat, a broad ſtriped calicoe jacket, one pair of black everlaſting breeches, one pair of white drilling breeches, thread ſtockings, a pair of new ſhoes, and a pair of old ditto, a new Philadelphia made hat; he has a ſcar on each ſide under his chin, and a bald place on the back of his head, about the bigneſs of a dollar, occaſioned by a diſorder, ſhort black hair, and a failing in one of his eyes. Whoever takes up ſaid fellow, and ſecures him in any goal, ſo as his maſter may get him again, ſhall have THREE POUNDS reward, if taken in this county, and if out of the county FIVE POUNDS, and reaſonable charges, paid by GEORGE STAKE.

N. B. It is likely he went off with a woman. All maſters of veſſels are forbid to harbour or carry him off, at their peril.
